WASHINGTON, March 8—The belief is overwhelming today that the United States is preparing for a war demonstration on the Mexican border, and not preparing merely for military maneuvers, as the regular army officers declare.

The mobilizing of 20,000 troops on the Mexican border, the soldiers all armed with ball cartridges, and the sending of two fleets, with the magazines of the ships full of ammunition to the adjoining coasts, can not be construed as a war game.

The soldiers and marines are equipped for actual warfare and the government is preparing to keep the troops in Texas for six months if events justify. The United States government is determined the American interests in Mexico shall be protected and that foreign interests shall not be allowed to suffer.

The second battalion of the Third field artillery at Fort Myers has been ordered to Texas and left for the south this morning. It is said that several thousand more troops will be ordered to the Texas frontier, that the orders are being prepared today and will be issued tonight.

Great secrecy is being maintained in official circles but the scenes of activity about the war department are such as have not been witnessed since the Spanish-American war.

Cruisers at San Diego—LOS ANGELES, March 8—The cruisers California, Pennsylvania and South Dakota sailed today for San Diego. These, with nine torpedo boat destroyers, are under orders from Washington carrying out a part of the war maneuvers.

While there may be no particular significance to the battleships being ordered to San Diego at this time, it is believed this is following out the plan of the war department by which troops are being sent to the Mexican border and that the President Coming South—

WASHINGTON, March 8—President Taft leaves on his southern trip tomorrow night. During his trip and his stay at Atlanta and Augusta he will be hourly informed of developments on the Mexican border and the mobilization of troops. He will deliver but one address, that one to the Southern Commercial congress at Atlanta.

No British War Ships—

LONDON, March 8—The foreign offices today issued an official denial that British warships have been ordered to Mexican waters or that a request has been made for their presence there.

Say Japs Are the Cause—

WASHINGTON, March 8—Several men high up in military circles here declare that the purpose of mobilizing troops in the southwest is a warning to Mexico and Japan that the present colonization in Mexico by Japanese settlers is interpreted as hostile to American interests.
The Japanese are pouring into Mexico at an alarming rate.

The Japanese have also been trying to establish a naval base in Mexico and advices to the state department indicate their efforts will be successful unless a drastic move is made by this government immediately.

As a result of this sudden seri-

Dickinson may cancel his southern trip.

CHICAGO, March 8—Following the criticized for voting that Lorimer should retain his seat, and demanding the resignation of both reprehold mass meetings for the same purpose tonight.

The bitter feeling against the senators is spreading all over the state and plans are being made for the holding of similar mass meetings in every city and town in Illinois.

Previous to his vote in the senate to allow Lorimer to retain his seat Senator Cullom was the most popular man in Illinois, but now he is being made the object of severe censure.

Bascom Carleton, bad man and general tough character, wanted for the double murder of Deputy Sheriff Guy White and Abe Snyder at Es-panola Sunday afternoon, was captured by a posse at Dinner Island at 2 o'clock this morning.

Sheriff Perry at St. Augustine was notified immediately after the capture and took the first train south to take him prisoner to the county jail at St. Augustine.

Carleton made his escape into the woods immediately after the shooting Sunday afternoon and has been closely pursued since that time by posses of men under deputy sheriffs, working under the general directions of Sheriff Perry. The fugitive showed his acquaintance with the woods by managing to keep away from his pursuers and continually throwing them off the scent.

With Carleton at the time of the murders were two brothers, Dan and Marion Carleton and Mac Burnie.
These three were captured soon after they took to the woods and later the stepfather of the Carletons was also taken into custody and lodged in the St. Johns county jail with the other three men charged with being accessories to the crime.

Bascom Carleton will be charged with the murder and held in the St.
Johns county jail for trial.

The excitement is still running high at Espanola, where the murders were committed. Dinner Island is north of Espanola and it was not necessary for the sheriff to take his prisoner through the town where White and Snyder were so foully murdered.

conditions dropped about 3/8. May were 10 to 15 lower and cattle steady to 10 lower.

Every friend of the different contestants should pay their subscription tomorrow and enable their favorite to win this bonus, as 50,000 votes may is the first prize in this contest.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 8—
The invasion of Mexico by American troops will begin as soon as the troops arrive, according to reports received at Fort Sam Houston today. If the troops are sent over the border they will be continually reinforced as the fresh troops arrive from the north.

Arrangements Are Made—WASHINGTON, March 8—It is now reported that the general staff of the United States army has completed all arrangements to invade Mexico. If this movement begins the troops will cross the border at El Paso and restore order at Chihuahua at once.

Army, state and navy officials have been with President Taft in almost continuous conference throughout the day. Army officers are now admitting privately that trouble with Mexico is expected and that the army may be compelled to cross the river.

Authentic reports say President Diaz of the Mexican republic can not survive many days as he is rapidly breaking down under the strain of the revolt and his old age. It is understood the death of President Diaz will mean the collapse of the government and a state of chaos and that hundreds of millions of dollars worth of property belonging to foreigners will be wholly at the mercy of the hungry horde of irresponsible insurrectos. The Americans have $1,500,000,000 invested in Mexico.

Practically all coast artillery from Long Island Sound to the Gulf of Mexico has been ordered to proceed to Galveston.

The war department today ordered a large quantity of pontoon bridge material sent to El Paso, Tex., which means the army will be prepared to cross the Rio Grande should the bridge be destroyed.

STORY OF GRAND OPERA TO BE SEEN IN DAYTONA.

EXCELLENT COMPANY AND GOOD ORCHESTRA IS COMING TO THE NEW DAYTONA THEATER THURSDAY EVENING.

Cavalleria Rusticana (R. sic Chivakry), a dramatic episode based on a tale by Giovanni Verga, was originally written as a drama produced by Alexander Salvini, and afterwards set to music by Pietro Mascagni.

The action of the opera takes place Easter morning on the public square in a village of Italy.

Turiddu, a village ne'er-do-well, is in love with Lola and is conscripted to serve in the army. He returns to find her the wife of Alfio, a driver. Piqued, he seeks consolation in the company of Santuzza, who has always adored him. Lola in turn is exasperated and secretly endeavors to reclaim his love, thus making Turiddu a double traitor.

The opera opens Easter morning. Santuzza is under the ban of the church. She cannot kneel before the altar in prayer and rejoicing, knowing that Turiddu has been seen with Lola, she appeals to his former love and reminds him of his promises. As she kneels to him, Lola crosses the square, the women exchange bitter words, Lola enters the church, Turiddu quarrels with Santuzza and follows Lola.

Alfio appears and Santuzza, in revenge, arouses his suspicion.

The service over, Alfio and Turiddu meet at the Inn. Alfio refuses to drink wine with Turiddu in commemoration of the day and is challenged to mortal combat.

Turiddu, conscious stricken, feeling the swift approach of death, seeks Lucia, his mother, and implores her blessing. His presentation is borne out by the arrival of a messenger, who announces the result of the duel.

A picturesque scenic production will be given at the New Daytona theater Thursday night, March 9, by the English Grand Opera company and orchestra.

*FOR SALE—Desirable cottage in residential block, South Beach street, with garage. Six bedrooms, all modern improvements, comfortably furnished. Lot 54x185. W. M. Shaffner. 81-83-85

NEW SMYRNA
FLORIDA

NEW SMYRNA is situated fifteen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida.

With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man runneth not, interlaced with wires of the modern telegraph and telephone, its miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and over-arched by hoary forest giants that grew in stately grandeur during the lapse of bygone centuries, New Smyrna is truly a place of romance and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and hunting in the state of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising, and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school, a splendid public library, and up-to-date business houses.

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences. There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accommodations to meet your requirements. Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which can be bought at reasonable prices. Some of the finest celery grown in the state is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian River oranges.

JUST GOSSIP

BY THE GOSSIPER.

The regular meeting of the Daytona board of trade, which was postponed from Monday night because of the mock trial at the school house, will be held in the Elks hall this evening at 8 o'clock and every member of that organization is urged to be present at the meeting. The new board of trade has accomplished more for the city of Daytona in the few weeks it has been organized than individual efforts have been able to accomplish in many years. It has been a lively example of the benefits of organization and even the most skeptical, the ones who have most vigorously wielded the hammers, are now thoroughly convinced the civic organization is filling a long felt want in the life of Daytona and they are pleading for a chance to climb on the bandwagon. The Daytona board of trade is flourishing and will continue to flourish; it has already accomplished much for the city, and there is still more to be done; it is taking the proper course to put this beautiful little city on the map in big letters and it needs the boosting support of every citizen to accomplish this ultimate object.

In the appointment of William S. Kenney as manager of the Mt. Washington hotel at Bretton Woods, N. H., one of the largest and best among New England summer resort hostleries, the owners of this hotel and the tourists are assured the hotel will be conducted along the same lines which has made it so popular in the past. While the late John Anderson has been the moving spirit behind the Mt. Washington since it was built Mr. Kenney has been his apt pupil and is thoroughly accomplished to continue the same liberal and hospitable policy of Mr. Anderson, considered one of the best hotel men in the country. Mr. Kenney is thoroughly acquainted with the details of hotel management, both in the north in the summer season and in the south in the winter season, and is well known and popular with the tourist public. As manager of the Mt. Washington hotel and Hotel Clarendon he is placed in the front rank among hotel managers.

CIVIC DEPARTMENT OF THE PALMETTO CLUB REALIZES OVER $800 FROM RECENT PUBLIC ENTERTAINMENTS.

It may be interesting for the public to know what are the net receipts of the recent carnival given for the benefit of Island Park under the able management of Mrs. C. M. Wilder, chairman of the civic department of the Palmetto club. After all the bills are paid the proceeds will amount to about $675. The department wishes to thank all who aided so materially in making such a success of the carnival, as well as of the other two entertainments given for the purchase of a curtain for the auditorium of the public school, from which the sum of $155 was realized. This makes a total of $830 raised by the civic department of the Palmetto Club this season for public purposes.

THE SOCIALIST ADDRESSAT UNION HALL LAST NIGHT.

ORGANIZER J. L. FITTS A PLEASANT SPEAKER—PERSUADED TO REMAIN AND LECTURE AGAIN TONIGHT.

Tuesday night Organizer J. L. Fitts, of the Socialist party, spoke in the Union hall on North Beach street, to a large and attentive audience. The language was so simple that a child could understand, and the forcible hits, apt illustrations and pointed witticisms drew frequent applause or laughter. The lecture, instead of being abusive and pessimistic, was good-natured, optimistic and even laudatory.

The speaker made a strong plea for the reading of standard, authoritative works by Socialist writers; then he answered several questions and distributed copies of the Socialist platform and other literature.

The Socialists were so highly pleased with the lecture that they persuaded Mr. Fitts to remain and speak again tonight in the same place, Union hall on North Beach street.

AREOPLANES OF CURTISS THE LEADERS.

HAVE LED ALL OTHERS

IN MAKING EXPERIMENTS.

THE KIND THAT M'CURDY WILL USE IN MAKING HIS EXHIBITION FLIGHTS HERE LAST OF THIS MONTH.

Important among the features of the aeroplane tournaments to be held at Daytona for three days beginning March 28 is the appearance of the Curtiss aeroplane which has taken the lead in advancing the science of aviation along practical lines during the past year. First in cross country flights from city to city; first to be used in bomb dropping experiments; first used for demonstrations of aerial sharp shooting by an officer of the United States army; first to fly from the deck of a United States cruiser, and possibly most important of all, the first aeroplane from which a wireless message was ever sent while the machine was in flight, the Curtiss biplane has done more to demonstrate the practicability of the aeroplane, especially as a military machine, than any other flyer. It will be demonstrated here by J. A. D. McCurdy, who is one of the pioneers in these experiments.

Besides Curtiss himself, McCurdy has done as much as any other men in his preliminary experimental work which is eventually to make the aeroplane a thing to be reckoned with in warfare as well as commercially. Mr. Curtiss started the year's developments with his historic flight from Albany to New York city when he won the New York World's prize of $10,000. It is a notable fact that when this prize was offered about eight months before Mr. Curtiss accomplished the feat on his first attempt, it was thought next to impossible for an aeroplane to make the trip and the conditions governing the contest for the prize were such that digible balloons were also free to enter.

One of the most important of the series of practical experiments that have been conducted was the wireless test tried out at the Sheepshead Bay meet. In this test there was used an apparatus especially designed for the purpose by H. M. Horton, a wireless expert of high standing. The sending "station" was on the Curtiss machine flown by J. A. D. McCurdy, who, besides being the aviator was also the wireless operator. The aerial, which on ordinary stations stands upright, was formed by a 100-foot copper wire suspended from the aeroplane ending in a piece of soft copper as a "ground."

In a receiving station on the roof of the grandstand, Mr. Horton, after several trials had been made, received the following message:

"Horton: Another chapter in aerial achievement is recorded in the sending of this wireless message from an aeroplane in flight—McCurdy."

Army officers who witnessed the experiment enthusiastically declared the sending of the wireless message from an aeroplane was the only thing which had remained to guarantee the usefulness of the flying machine in warfare.

Recent arrivals at the Oaks are Mrs D D Thompson, New York, N Y, Mrs J S Cunningham, Mrs T W Montgomery, Mrs W W Curry, Youngstown, O, W E Clute, St Louis, Mo, Thos H Prior and wife, Belmar, N J, Mrs F S Day, Miss Abbie Day, Miss Louise Day, Sioux City, Iowa, Mrs Dwight Bannister, Miss Edith Bannister, Ottumwa, Ia, H S Tanner and wife, Providence, R I, R M Seibel and wife, Miss L Seibel, Mrs M S Miller, Winchester, Ky, Miss Madeline W Miller, Miss Annie F Miller, Shelby, N C, Miss Susan A Benson, Norristown, Pa.

SEABREEZE and DAYTONA BEACH, two enterprising and progressive towns on the Halifax Peninsula, are geographically one although incorporated as separate municipalities. The towns parallel the peninsula north and south for a distance of from three and one-half to four miles, and extend east and west from the surging seas of the Atlantic Ocean to the Halifax River, the beautiful tide water stream that sets them apart from Daytona with which they have close communion by means of three bridges, as well as a half-hour ferry service.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer and winter resorts and are making hundreds of new friends every year among those who desire to escape the discomforting extremes of heat and cold, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving splendid patronage from the most discriminating class of tourists.

The ocean itself, with its marvelous beach, hard as macadam and smooth as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although earth, air and sky seem to have entered into a combination to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straight-away record has been made, and all these records it continues to hold without rival.

The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobilizing some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1500. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, streets and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accommodation for all winter visitors in both towns.

All the attractiveness of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated. The development of Daytona Beach has been fully as phenomenal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-year-round occupancy.

The Roar of China's Ducks.
Tourists in China are always surprised by the number of ducks they see. There are more ducks in China than in all the rest of the world. Their voices are a familiar sound in every town and country spot of the vast empire. Even in the large cities ducks abound. They flit squawking out of the way of the horses. Their indignant quack will not seldom drown the roar of urban commerce. Children herd ducks on every road, on every pond, on every farm, on every lake, on every river. There is no back yard without its duck house. There is no boat, little or great, without its duck quarters. All over the land there are great duck hatching establishments, many of them of a capacity huge enough to produce 50,000 young ducks every year. Duck among the Chinese is a staple delicacy. It is salted and smoked like ham or beef.—New York World.

Willing to Be Reasonable.
"Do you believe in long engagements?" he asked after she had consented to be his.
"Yes, dearest," she replied. "I have always thought it was such a mistake for two people to rush into matrimony before they learned to really know each other."
"Well, about how long would you wish the engagement to be?"
"Let me see! Would you think it was too long if we didn't get married until a week from next Thursday?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

Fellow Worms.
Before Longfellow bought the house in Cambridge so associated with his memory it was owned and occupied by old Mrs. Craigie. Mrs. Craigie was a woman of many eccentricities. Some one once tried to persuade her to have her trees tarred to protect them from caterpillars, which also invaded her neighbors' trees. She refused to be so cruel to the caterpillars. "They are our fellow worms," she said.

Somewhat Surprised.
"Why didn't your boy enter college?"
"He couldn't pass the examination."
"Do they have to pass an examination? I thought all a college boy needed was some funny clothes."—Pittsburg Post.

His Motive.
Pillows—I never realized till three years ago why Dobson was always preaching patience. Brousters—What made you realize it then? Pillows—I lent him $10.—New York Globe.

The early bird we've often heard is the one of which we boast. Sometimes he gets the worm, and then sometimes he gets on toast.

Henry F. Lippitt, Successor to Aldrich, Is Rich Manufacturer

HENRY F. LIPPIITT, chosen to succeed Nelson W. Aldrich in the United States senate, belongs to a prominent Rhode Island family, but his fame, except among those acquainted with the cotton manufacturing business or those interested in yachting, has not extended far outside his native state. He has been identified with the Republican party in Rhode Island all his life, but has principally devoted himself to the textile business, being proprietor of several cotton mills. He is a brother of Charles Warren Lippitt, who was governor of Rhode Island fifteen years ago, and his father, for whom he was named, was previously the chief executive of the state. Mr. Lippitt won by a bare majority on the joint ballot, though he had the backing of the "organization" Republicans. He lacked one of a majority in the house, but the senate gave him two more than a majority, which gave him victory. Mr. Lippitt is a member of the New York Yacht club, and he owns several fast boats. He not only owns but sails them, being a real yachtsman who can handle the tiller and direct the set of the sails. He was aboard Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht Shamrock as the representative of the New York Yacht club when Lipton made his first attempt to "lift" the America's cup. As the successor of Senator Aldrich, long a commanding figure in the senate, Mr. Lippitt's course will be watched with interest.

Your Occupation.
Every occupation lifts itself with the enlarging life of him who practices it. The occupation that will not do that no man really has a right to occupy himself about.—Phillips Brooks.

A correspondent of the New Sun says he overheard the following: "The boys came out from over in between those houses." Here are five prepositions in a bunch. Can this "record" be broken?

ORMOND-ON-THE-HALF

ORMOND is 5 miles north of Daytona, on the west side of the Halifax River. The location is a perfect one for a winter home. A wide bridge connects Ormond with Daytona Beach. Many fine homes are maintained on either side of the river, most of them surrounded by subtropical flora and shrubbery, besides thirty orange and other citrus fruit trees.

Ormond has many attractions—excellent automobile, good fishing, safe boating, and many pleasant drives. At Ormond Beach is located the large Hotel Ormond, and its lesser sister, the Iretton Inn. The former occupies a position overlooking the Halifax, and the latter has as its outlook the magnificent beach and the broad Atlantic.

Besides the broad, smooth beach there are many drives for carriages and automobiles around Ormond—drives to and through groves of golden oranges; drives through tropical forests to Spanish ruins; drives to the ancient Causeway built by slaves of planters of long ago, and drives to the plantations of hospitable settlers, whose places are replete with the interest of Southern fruits and flowers.

One of the most interesting of these plantations is at the headwaters of the Halifax and known as Moundgrove. It is one of the finest orange groves on the East Coast of Florida and is amid very pretty surroundings. Moundgrove is on the Daytona-Saint Augustine road.

WILKS AND A BATH

...of a Trio of English
...in Germany.

PRINCE AND A PRIVATE TUB

...Antarctic Highness Was Shame-
...Ignored and Enraged, and His
...Bath Was Shamefully Ap-
...and Abused.

...Wilks and I had been "doing"
...on the cheap, and I don't
...which of us enjoyed it least.
...grumbled the most, but then ...days did, and, though Wilks and I
...to look on the humorous side of
...we had just fresh over it. We had ...upon a boat wave and swal-
...a tremendous lot of dust and ...thrown in gratis, cheap though our
...was. But we couldn't swallow
...titles that cropped up
...us. We had too much British
...for that. And, as luck would ...it, at the last town of our tour
...were quartered on the top floor of ...hotel where a German prince occu-
...a suit of rooms. In our opinion,
...English tourists were worth more ...than thirty German princes, and we
...our boots on the floor at night
...the vain hope that he was under-...But, alas, his suit was on the
...and we never even caught a
...of him, though once we heard
...stuffed, arrogant, penetrating
...and the oozy fulsome rejoinders
...of the waiter both articulating a lan-
...which Parker contemptuously
...as "the limit."

It was the last morning of our stay.
Parker and I had gone back to the hotel to pack our bags before departing for the station. The weather was hotter and drier than ever, and Wilks, always energetic, had gone to the public bathing place on the river in search of a swim. I had a letter to write, and Parker wandered round the hotel to kill time. Presently he thrust his head in at the door. It had lost its familiar lowering look and wore a bright and alert expression.

"I say," he ejaculated mysteriously, almost under his breath, "I've just found a bathroom in this blighted hole —both full of tepid water, with a thermometer in it—clean, warmed towels on the rail, and all that. What shall I do?"

"Do!" I replied. "Get into it, man, and let me know when you've finished."

He wasn't long and came back looking wonderfully young and clean. The bath had just arrived and I had spent a few minutes over my letters before I also found the bathroom, following his directions. It was without exception the best I have ever been in, and, to my surprise, the big porcelain tub was half full of tepid water, and a set of clean, newly warmed towels hung on the rail. I took what the bath gave and asked no questions, but wanted more cold water and experimented unsuccessfully with various layers on the wall. As a last hope I attacked a cart wheel affair on the wall and after a stiff struggle managed to turn it. A flood of cold water rushed in along one side of the bath, and it was all I could do to wrench the wheel around and stop the flow.
As I did so light came upon me in a flash. This was the prince's bath, prepared for him a second time by his sequacious valet. It was the glorious certainty of the fact that made me enjoy that bath as I have never enjoyed a bath before or since. The cheap English tourists were one up on his prere highness, after all. Still, I shalt, when I had finished tubbing I got no time in getting back to the fourth floor again. I told Parker the great news, and we were just discussing it with rapture when Wilks came in, looking supremely dejected for the first time on the tour.

"The bathing place isn't open," he murmured. "Had all the fog of going there for nothing. What dirty beggars they are!"

"Not all of them," I replied. "Don't worry, old chap." And I described to him the position of the bathroom, and he was off like a hare. During his absence we thoughtfully packed our bags and his. In ten minutes he returned, fresh as a mountain daisy and bubbling over with gratitude.

"What sort of bath did you get?" I asked carelessly.

"A clincher," he cried, "and it was all put ready for me, clean towels and everything. The only difficulty I had was with the cold water wheel arrangement on the floor."

"It was a bit stiff," I agreed.

"It turned on all right," said Wilks,
"but I couldn't turn it off."

"What did you do?" we asked together.

"I left it," he answered simply.

"What time are we due at the station?" said Parker.

"Now," I replied, and we took our bags and went.

As we descended the stairs with studied calmness we heard electric bells continuously tingling on the first floor, a high pitched arrogant voice raised in anger, oozy, servile tones answering imploringly. We came upon the proprietor leaping up the stairs and a stream of water leaping down them, and a couple of hours afterward we crossed the border, with the secret satisfaction that we had "done" Germany at last.—London Punch.

A man is called selfish not for pursuing his own good, but for neglecting his neighbor's.—Whately.

NEVADA'S STATE ANTHEM.

A Reno (Nev.) hotel manager has this striking, even audacious, personification of the national hymn "America" on a circular advertising his hotel:

Nevada, 'tis of thee,
Sweet state of liberty,
Of thee I sing.
State where our fathers flee,
State that sets mothers free,
Marriage, because of thee,
Hath lost its sting.

My state that holds the key
That sets the shackled free,
I love thy name.
I love thy lawyers' ways,
Thy dazling divorcees,
The briefness of their stays,
Their little game.

Reno, it is to thee,
Daughter of liberty,
To thee we flee.
Long may thy streets resound
With freedom's joyful sound, Scatter thy light around,
From sea to sea!

LOCKSLEY HALL HERMIT WAS TIGHT ROPE WALKER.

Eccentric English Millionaire Had Been Friend of Blondin.

England has just lost by death a most eccentric character, George Edward Dering, eighty-one years old, a fellow of the Royal society, whose diversion was to walk a tight rope over a lake in his grounds.

Dering was the owner of Locksley Hall and its 1,000 acres at the village of Welwyn, in Hertfordshire, and for twenty years, since the death of his wife, had not been outside his park gates. Within the park he drove in old King George coaches swung on leather. He never saw an automobile —refused to look at one because he hated noise.

Though he had millions in cash and large estates in Galway, Ireland, he seldom spent any money, permitted poachers on his land to supply his table and would often have them sup per with him. Yet to make his home quieter he spent $100,000 in shifting a public road.

He was a great friend of Blondin, the old rope walker who crossed Niagara. Blondin taught him to walk the rope, and he frequently invited the villagers to see him perform. On such occasions he always wore lights, just as Blondin did. He belonged to an ancient Saxon family, of which Sir Henry Neville Dering is the head. He left an only daughter, who is now having the lawns mowed for the first time in a generation.

Saving Her Strength.
Doctor—My dear madam, you've been overtaxing your strength. Try wearing less jewelry.—Life.

The Easy Way.
Tom and Bill grew up in the same town. Tom was clever and lazy, Bill an indolent plodder.

"Tom is still shiftless, I suppose," said an old resident on returning to the town after twenty years' absence.
"And poor old Bill is dead, eh, and he's left over a million!"

"Yes, that's right," a native replied.
"But the latest news about Tom is that he's goin' to marry Bill's widdler."

"The doctor says you have but an hour to live."

"Give me pen and paper," said the dying man feebly.

"To make your will?"

"No; I am going to give the doctor my note for thirty days. He will have to keep me alive at least that long to collect it."—Judge

BRIDGE AND FIVE HUNDRED PARTY TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

MRS. J. B. DOWNING ENTERTAINED AT HOME OF MRS. T. H. WHITE ON SOUTH BEACH STREET.

Mrs. J. B. Downing of Middletown, Ohio, who, with her husband, Major J. B. Downing, is a guest of the Despland hotel, entertained at the home of Mrs. Thos. H. White on South Beach street Tuesday afternoon, some fifty or more ladies being present.

Five hundred and bridge were enjoyed from 2 until 4 o'clock when an inviting luncheon was partaken of by the card players and a number of ladies who had later joined the party. The rooms and tables were beautifully decorated with roses and nasturtiums and the place cards were roses.

The first bridge prize, a handsome brass basket, was won by Mrs. J. P. Esch of Daytona Beach, and the second a miniature picture, went to Miss Jessie Chamberlin of this city. The five hundred prizes were won by Mrs. W. M. Shaffner and Mrs. C. C. Bohannon, both of Daytona, the former receiving a beautiful hand-made bag and the latter a handsome brass jardiniere.

A novel feature of the occasion was the drawing of the consolation prize, all the ladies present taking part in this with the exception of those who received prizes. This was done by the ladies drawing all the cards of a deck, Mrs. Downing holding a duplicate of the winning card, which she herself did not know. Mrs. W. W. Cook of Baltimore, Md., a guest of the Despland, was the successful contestant in this drawing.

There were seven tables of bridge and two of five hundred, and during the card playing and throughout the afternoon the guests showed plainly their evident pleasure and enjoyment of the delightful entertainment.

ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO MURDER; NEGRO WANTED IN GEORGIA.

GORE FINDS HERE BLACK MAN WHO FIRED CHARGE OF BUCKSHOT INTO ANOTHER NEGRO AT ZEBULON.

Charged with assault with intent to commit murder, Charles Coggin, colored, was arrested in this city Tuesday night by Deputy Sheriff Gore and turned over to Sheriff Ed Smith to be held until the arrival of an officer from Zebulon, Ga.

The arrest was made on information from Sheriff Slade of Zebulon, who sent to Deputy Gore a full description of the negro, who is wanted in the neighboring state for firing a charge of buckshot at close range into the anatomy of one John Wald, colored.

The information from Georgia said the negro would probably be found working at some hotel or boarding house. The information was received by Deputy Gore Tuesday forenoon and by early evening he had the black man behind the bars in the city jail.

A partial confession was secured from the arrested negro, who says the trouble with John Wald at Zebulon arose over a woman, wife of Wald, and that Wald had threatened to kill Coggin on sight. He claims the shooting was done in self defense and that Wald would have killed him if he had not downed him with the charge of buckshot from the shot gun. The buckshot struck Wald in the right arm and side and Coggin fled. He made his way to Florida and finally landed in Daytona, where he has been working as a dishwasher since the first part of January. He never heard until arrested whether Wald had survived or died from the effects of his wound.

Sheriff Ed Smith was in the city Tuesday evening when the arrest was made and the prisoner was turned over to the county official by Deputy Gore, to be held until the arrival of the Zebulon sheriff, who was notified of his arrest by wire.

PLEASANT BIRTHDAY PARTY AT BEACH STREET HOME.

YOUNG FRIENDS OF GEORGE KERR ARCHIBALD ASSIST IN CELEBRATING THE SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY OF HIS BIRTH.

A dozen or more children enjoyed a pleasant time Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Archibald of Cincinnati, Ohio, who are occupying a cottage on South Beach street for the season, the party being given in celebration of the seventh anniversary of the birth of their son, George Kerr Archibald. The children were marshaled to luncheon at 12:30 to the music of the phonograph and met a pleasant sight on entering the dining room, the table being a bank of beautiful roses, fresh from surrounding garden. Prize bon bons following a delicious repast, made much merriment for the children.

After the luncheon and until late in the afternoon the little folks enjoyed games of various kinds. A fish pond, where articles of different kinds were captured, contributed to the pleasure of the children as did also the game of "donkey," the ball being pinned everywhere but in the right place. The prizes offered in this game were secured by Henry Putnam, Harmon Swits, Jr., Nathalie Hartshorn and Henry Hartshorn, Jr.

The children present were: Bayard Kilgour, Henry and Nathalie Hartshorn, Henry and Katherine Putnam, Harmon Swits, Jr., Russell Hoyt, Robert and Mary Belle Myers, Mary Kent Robbins, Marice Livingston and Katherine, Ernst and George Kerr Archibald.
